

Dear FCC, Please be aware of my great appreciation for establishing the "no call list". This has given our family much more peaceful and quite times together, most importantly during meals, homework time and quality family play time. Again thanks and please keep this ruling in effect.
Neil Stewart